Forward-Looking Statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws that involve risks and uncertainties, including expectations regarding the timing of payment of declared or future dividends. Words such as “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “estimates,” “can,” “will” and similar expressions identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of results and should not be considered as an indication of future activity or future performance. Actual events or results may differ materially from those described in this press release due to a number of risks and uncertainties, including, among others, Marvell’s results of operations, cash balances and future cash requirements, financial condition, developments in ongoing litigation, statutory requirements of Bermuda law, the timing and outcome of the Audit Committee’s investigation and the conclusions of the Audit Committee, actions that may be taken or required as a result of the Audit Committee’s investigation, actions by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) or other regulatory agencies in connection with the Audit Committee’s investigation, and the outcome of NASDAQ’s review of Marvell’s plan of compliance and the timing and outcome of any NASDAQ decision and other factors that Marvell’s board of directors may deem relevant. For other factors that could cause Marvell’s results to vary from expectations, please see the risk factors identified in the Marvell’s latest Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2015 and latest Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended May 2, 2015 as filed with the SEC, and other factors detailed from time to time in Marvell’s filings with the SEC. Marvell undertakes no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statements.
